Welcome Weekend

Every August the pace speeds up and the campus is filled with excitement as the students move back. The weekend begins with freshmen and sophomores being welcomed by Resident Assistants and Residence Hall Supervisors into Kenoyer and Johnson Hall. After dinner students and their families gather for a time of worship and prayer led by President Ingram and Colin Schlotfeldt. That night ends with residence hall meeting and activities. The next few days consist of enrolling, NSO groups, meeting small group leaders, serving the community. New this year was the Faculty/Staff vs. Student dodge ball game. The weekend came to a close with a worship night put on by the Student Government.

Ben Hartman and Michael Rice take their best shots during the Faculty/Staff vs. Student dodge ball game.

Dr. Paddock welcomes new students during a meet and greet with the faculty.

Alaina Witzke, Dacia Whitely, Alexa Murphy, Veronica Hernandez, and Carla Ceja eagerly await students to arrive so they can help with moving in.

Casey McMillen tries his best for a strike while bowling at the KSU Union bowling alley.

Nate May and Russell Wilson welcome a new student and help him carry his belongings to his new home.

Karly Gibbs, Courtney Siegel, Madison Chalfant, Sydney Rhoades, and Cassidy Sweet enjoy the Student Government worship night.

Rebekah Zwirk and Bethany Jessup are grateful to be on campus together.

Student Government Vice President Colin Schlotfeldt led a prayer service for students to pray for their family and family to pray for their students.

Returning students arrived on campus a day early and Student Development treated them to a BBQ and devotion from Jon Grogg.

NSO groups work together to help at a local church.

Barn Party

Every fall, CPC invites the students and faculty to a local barn for a costume party. This year Barn Party was held at Lazy T Ranch. This special fall night consisted of lots of music, pumpkin carving, dance contests, costume contests and lots of treats for all. Barn Party is a fun time for students and faculty to take a break from homework and their work life and just come hang out and have fun. Costume awards given out that night went to:

Alexa Murphy and Alex Bladlie - One Tree Hill

Characters Lucas and Peyton

Matthew Lundy - Buddy the Elf

Alani Shener - Head of Lettuce

Tyler Bade - Eleven from Stranger Things

Riley Corbin - Jesus

Nicole Santillo, Shaelly Cole and Katherine Lundy are dressed as the three little pigs with the big bad wolf and the brick house also making appearances. Jeanie Jurst, Candyce Halstead and her boyfriend take a break from the dance floor.

Joshua McCrickard, otherwise known as JMAC, sports an animal costume for his final Bam Party.

One Tree Hill superstars Lucas Scott (Alex Blechle) and Peyton Sawyer (Alexa Murphy) make an appearance at Bam Party!

Mike Wazowski (Mickinzi Burrow) and Guly (Courtney Deist) decided to take the right off from scaring children to come hang out with us too! It looks like Boo (Meredith Wesley) decided to tag along, too!

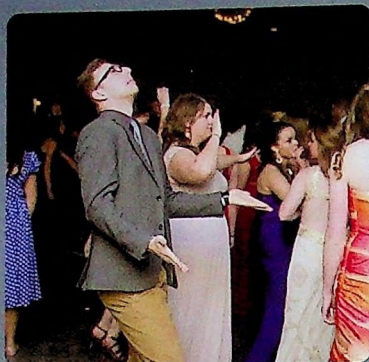

These overhead shots of the dance floor show a glimpse of the variety of costumes at Bam Party.

Winter Banquet

Winter Banquet is an event put on by CPC every fall semester. This year the theme was Prom through the Ages! There was a variety of prom attire represented. Some borrowed their parents formal wear and others wore their prom outfit from high school. Like every prom, there was a vote for Prom Royalty. This year's Prom King was Ryan Watts. There was a tie for Prom Queen so Anya Maltseva and Brooks Sutton shared the title. The dance was followed by an after prom event at Flint Hills Christian School. CPC had many games planned, an inflatable obstacle course, and lots of good snacks.

Collin Schlotfeldt relives his dance moves from High School.
Zach Price and his small group love Prom.
Xavier Ramey and Joel Rice participate in a dance off.

Never forget your 2017 prom queen(s) and king Anya Maltseva, Ryan Watts and Brooks Sutton. Choosing between Anya and Brooks was a tough choice so they were willing to split the prize.

Bethany Jessup participates in one of the shooting activities at the after prom event held after winter banquet.

Natalie and Jenna Alton show up at winter banquet ready to dance the night away.

Greece Mission Trip

Over the summer a group of eleven MCC students embarked on a journey that only the Lord could equip them to do. On June 1st the students traveled with Dave and Jen Cuperly to Athens, Greece. For the next two months the students served at a ministry called Alliance Relief Center where on an average day they would minister to 60-80 refugees. Their job was to meet whatever need presented itself. This ministry often took the shape of working behind the coffee bar, assisting with laundry, supervising the kids room, teaching English classes, or just being present with those who were there. Every day the focus was to build deep relationships. The MCC team also served for a period of time at two camps - a camp for Polish teenagers and an Arabic family English camp. Quality time was spent in their homes over a cup of Syrian tea, in the community building dancing the night away to Arabic rap, on the soccer field, or in the wee hours when most others had gone to bed. Friendships were made and our hearts were bonded like only the Lord could do.

Kerusso Dayz: Spring Break

A group of 18 students went to Puerto Penasco, Mexico during Spring Break to serve and minister with iGEight ministry. While they were there they helped build a house for a local family and put on a VBS program for the children in the community. They also visited an orphanage and spent time hanging out with the children. One day the students did a prayer walk around the barrios and prayed for the families living in those conditions. One of the highlights was spending time with the local community and also with the iGEight leaders.

Skip Day

Skip day is a StuGov led event where all of the classes for the day are cancelled. The day began with worship led by Riley Corbin and a devotional from Crestview Youth Pastor Natalie Holdren. After devotions donuts and coffee were served in the Campus Center. The Faculty/Staff vs. Student kick ball game was next along with an egg toss game. Once lunch was served, the volleyball and basketball tournaments were underway. A highlight of this year's Skip Day was tours through the new Howie's Activity Center. President Ingram led several groups of students through and everyone was encouraged to write a message on the walls. The evening ended with everyone getting ready for Spring Banquet.

The students and faculty had a unique opportunity to explore the new activity center. They were able to pray over the building and write words of encouragement and prayer on the walls of the building.

Every skip day, the morning is started with student led worship and a devotion. The students gather by the bell tower for a time of worship together.

Following the morning of worship and devo, donuts and coffee are served in the campus center.

Spring Banquet

Spring Banquet is a great event open to all of the student body. Students and Faculty/Staff come to enjoy dinner and a dance and hang out with everyone for a night. This is a formal event and everyone takes advantage of that and brings their A game. This year Spring Banquet was held at University Christian Church and was catered by Ricky's of Hanover. Students are encouraged to create videos and the Student Development Staff voted on them. The winning video was from the Kerusso Dayz Spring Break participants. Student Awards are recognized. This year's awards were presented to:

Frank Nunez Servant's Heart Award

Alexa Murphy and Zach Price

Young Thunder Award

Building an Activity Center

Students, alumni, churches, donors, and other friends of the college are working together to make history. MCC has never had a facility large enough to hold special events as well as support the athletic program. The project is a 16,500 square foot building for an estimated cost of $3.1 million. This new facility will be large enough to benefit student life programming, provide a home for Thunder athletics, eliminate the need to rent city facilities, and upgrade the space available for leadership training events. Since 1947, athletics had been a part of the overall leadership training program at MCC. Despite not having any athletic facilities of its own, 52% of the student body participates in a varsity sport or intramurals throughout the year and the MCC athletic program has been consistently recognized nationally with 10 National Championships under its belt. The eight varsity sports compete in the National Christian College Athletic Association and the Midwest Christian College Conference. The MCC campus is located in the heart of Manhattan on approximately two square blocks. Without a large physical space on campus, registrations for conferences, seminars, and banquets are limited or are also held off-campus in rented facilities. Special ministry events and educational programming provide opportunities for the college to extend its outreach bringing more than 3,200 guests and participants throughout the year.

Student Development

The Student Development department is dedicated to supporting and promoting student growth in the classroom as well as in their daily lives. The Student Development staff host many parties and gatherings including Super Bowl party, Family Weekend, Christmas Open House, Final Four party, and numerous other events. In addition to these activities, the Student Development department and staff offer assistance to those who may be struggling with adjusting to the college lifestyle with tutoring and study seminar.

Institutional Advancement

The Institutional Advancement office works hard to accurately tell the ongoing story of MCC to alumni, churches, businesses, and friends of the college. They focus on building relationships and growing resources that can be used to further the mission of educating, equipping, and enriching Christian leaders. Annual events include Leadership Breakfast, Momentum Conference, Golf Classic, Woman's World, and the Vision 360 Banquet. Church relationships are fostered with visits from the Ambassadors and the Drama Team. The MCC NOW Campaign is a short-term fund raising effort to raise money for a particular campus project. This year the campaign raised money for campus maps signage.

Admissions

Always looking for young Christian leaders who want to make an impact on the world around them, the Admissions staff is busy representing MCC. Most of their work is done on campus visits, in Christian camps, at college fairs, in churches, and at special events across the United States. Two of the largest recruiting efforts are Oasis and Timothy Days. The Oasis Conference is a local event organized by a committee of area youth ministers and the Admissions staff which attracts 1,000+ middle school and high school students and encourages them in their spiritual walk. In addition, twice a year in the spring, Timothy Days a scholarship event for prospective students, occurs on campus and it is the Admission staff and their helpers who work to give everyone personal attention as well as answer their questions.

Academics

Students come to college for many reasons. Some come very driven and know exactly what they want to do. Others need some time to figure out which path to pursue. Ultimately students are here to learn. Whether they choose to go into full-time ministry or a secular profession, MCC's vision is that every student and graduate would be prepared and motivated to penetrate the world with the gospel of Jesus Christ regardless of their chosen profession. The faculty at MCC provide the teaching and guidance that the student leaders desire.

Chapel

Every Thursday the entire student body and Faculty and Staff stop and gather in Jolliffe Hall for worship in the student-led service. Director of Student Development, Ben Grogg, coordinates chapel speakers and Genilyn McCaffrey is in charge of advising and guiding the worship teams. Worship team members apply and try out to be part of the teams. A wide variety of alumni, faculty, staff, and seniors from Dr. York's pastoral ministry class are asked to speak in this weekly service. It is a great time to build unity among the campus.

Kenoyer Hall

Small group leaders Emily Park, Erin Miller and Mikayla Miller are ready to help girls move in during Welcome Weekend.

The experience of living in Kenoyer Hall is incomparable to any other. Dorm devos, suite meetings, and floor functions bring strangers from all over the country together and through the year transform them into best friends. There is never a dull moment with these ladies! The late nights, time shared and relationships built create a lifetime of memories for the ladies of Kenoyer Hall.

A plethora of snacks are prepared for the ladies of Kenoyer.

Johnson Hall

How would you describe a large amount of men living in one building? Possibly a little smelly at times, but definitely an amazing experience. There were lots of crazy things that took place in Johnson this year - rock, paper, scissors tournaments, tailgate extravaganzas, and mop bucket jousting. But if you could see through the craziness you would see a brotherhood like no other. The men of Johnson Hall became a community of maturing Christian leaders that supported each other academically and, most importantly, spiritually.

Spiritual Life

Spiritual life is an important focus on campus and the StuGov Committee, SGLC, directs and organizes many events throughout the year. A Prayer Walk and Eucharist service were two new activities added this year that many enjoyed and participated in. SGLC also provided muffins every Tuesday, held a worship night with President Kevin Ingram and encouraged people to participate in a campus-wide fast. Juniors who were interested in doing life with the freshmen, led small groups that were organized by the Student Development Office. Another highlight of the year was the commissioning chapel service where the audience took time to pray over the graduating seniors and the different groups that would be serving through the summer.

Volleyball

The Lady Thunder were led by Seniors Lauren Wilson and Wynnette Sommerfeld. From her middle-hitter position, Sommerfeld ranks in the top 20 in the nation in kills average, ace average, block average and attack percentage. Wilson was first in the league and eight nationally in dig average. Along with these outstanding leaders, there were six freshmen and three sophomores. The team finished undefeated in regular season play and finished 3rd in the Conference Tournament. Four of the lady thunder received All-Conference awards. Tess Edlin was named to the 2nd All-Conference Team. Mary Frances McNellis was named to the 1st All-Conference Team. Libero Lauren Wilson was named 1st Team All-Conference. Middle hitter Wynnette Sommerfeld was named MOCC MVP. The team also finished 3rd at the NCAA Southwest Regional Tournament. At the regional tournament Lauren Wilson was named to the 2nd All-Region team and Wynnette Sommerfeld was named to the 1st All-Region Team. The team received the At Large bid and earned another trip to the National Tournament.

Women's Soccer

The Women's Soccer team had a rough start. At the first official practice of the season, there was a total of 6 players. Those 6 players were able to recruit some more players and the team was able to compete in two games. The ladies started their season with a tough loss to Stephens College. In their second game the Women's soccer team fought hard, but were defeated by Tabor College. After these two games and multiple injuries, the decision was made to cancel the rest of the season. It was not an easy decision, but one made to protect the rest of the team from injuries and prepare for the next season.

"Our motto is, something has to be believed to be seen," said 25 year head coach Rick Wright. Entering this season, there is plenty of reason for belief as seen through MCCC wins, regional banners, and going to each of the last 9 national tournaments. "Our goal is to add to the Long Blue Line of tradition," said Rick Wright. This year the team was 13-8 on the year, placed second at the MCCC Tournament, and first at the Regional Tournament which earned them another trip to Florida for the National Tournament.

Cross Country

It's going to take time, he knows, but if you're a runner, a jogger ... or even a brisk walker on the Manhattan Christian College campus, there's a pretty good chance that RJ Robinson will be calling on you in the weeks, months, years to come.

The team started with six men and zero women. In the future he envisions a minimum of six to eight runners on each team. "My goal is to relaunch our two programs," said the second-year MCC cross country coach. "We're going to recruit the students we have on campus, plus I want to get out and see more meets. We want to reach out and ask, 'Do you want to be a part of this new adventure?'"

This year's Cross Country headliners are Joshua McCrickard, a senior from Plainville, Kansas and Elijah Mendez, a junior from Topeka, Kansas. Coach RJ Robinson praises both of these guys for running the 8K in just over 31 minutes, and for their continued leadership.

Women's Basketball

What a difference a year makes...there's no better example of that than the women's basketball team. Last year the team won six games. This year the squad completed a 15-12 season. Coach Sarah Wenger said, "These girls had such a drive to work. We had seven girls on the court every day and they never lost their heart for the game, or became discouraged." In post-season play, the Lady Thunder placed third in the MOCC tournament with wins over Faith Baptist Bible College and Calvary. In Southwest Region play, it was Central Christian that eliminated MCC in the first round. The team's nine victory improvement over the previous year, Wenger said, "What I'll remember about this team is heart and endurance. They had a big belief in themselves." During this season Katherine Wenger was awarded 1st team All-Conference and 2nd team All-Region. Madi Chalfant was a 2nd team selection in both the MOCC and Southwest Region. Shelby Jennings also won 2nd team All-Region.

Men's Basketball

The men's basketball team captured both the MCCC Conference title and the NCAA Southwest Region Championship this season. They defeated the top seed Randal University and the number one team in the country. With that victory the Thunder earned a number two seed at the National Tournament in Ankeny, Iowa. Unfortunately, the team lost in the first round against Kentucky Christian College. They played Trinity College and Bob Jones University to earn a 5th place finish at the National Tournament. The Thunder basketball team had three players recognized by the NCAA. Senior Dalton Miller was recognized as a Scholar Athlete. Senior Nick Babalola was recognized as a 3rd Team All-American for his efforts on the court this season. Senior Mike White was honored as a 1st Team All-American. Coach Condra said, "It's great for our program to have these three honored by the NCAA. I'm thankful for their effort and commitment to the team goals."

Graduation

Graduation! A much welcomed Saturday in May. These students spent countless hours in classes, reading textbooks, writing papers, taking tests, and many of them working jobs at the same time. Graduation was held in Forum Hall in the newly remodeled Kansas State Union. The graduates were challenged by fellow alum and Crestview youth pastor Natalie Holdren to Go and Do! Go and Do with the expectation of greatness, a desire for breathlessness, and an appreciation of their history, and in anticipation of continual learning. "God is using you to build His Kingdom, and has been doing so since you first said Yes to His gift of salvation. Continue to Go and Do!"

Nicole Church receives her academic award from President Kevin Ingram.
Faith Hansard, Abbey Coffin, Alex Blechle, and Dominic Puccio celebrate their achievements.

MCC Alum Natalie Holden delivered the message to the graduates.

Graduates join in singing the alma mater.

Dacia Whiteley is congratulated by Ron Ratliff.

Lauren Wilson is excited and ready for Commencement to begin.

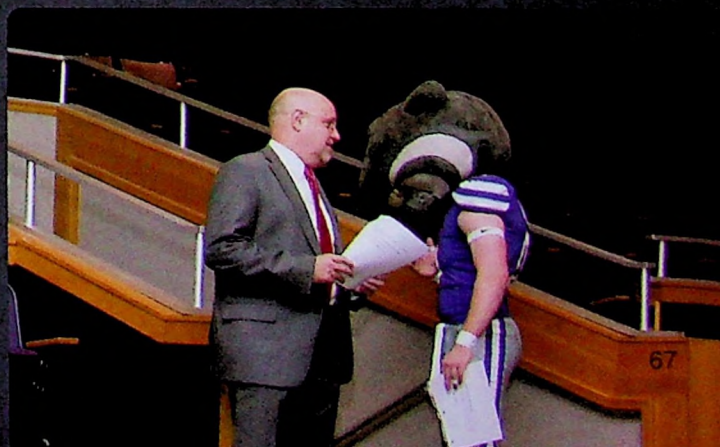

The moving the tassels from right to left gives everyone a good feeling.

Matt Lundy, Alec Van Nort, and Brooks Sutton still look cool

Willie made a special appearance during graduation rehearsal
